Festival fun in the sun

This summer's Trust Thamesmead Festival looks set to be a great family day out. With Chico topping the bill on the main stage, Byron shining on the T Factor stage and Gallions having a 'day at the seaside', young people of all ages will have something to look forward to.

In this issue of Thamesview you will find your own pull out and keep programme to the Festival. But be warned - it requires some expert paper folding skills! The summer is finally here and there's plenty to do for everyone so make sure you get out and about and enjoy it.

Complaints Contacts

Gallions aims to provide a first class service to all its residents. However, if you are unhappy with the service you have received there is a policy in place to help you make a complaint. A step-by-step guide is available on the Gallions website under the 'contact us' section. You may also get in touch with the Complaints Management team who will advise you what action to take. Your feedback is important to Gallions.

Taking a tough line on rubbish

Gallions Neighbourhood Wardens have been asking residents what they think should be done to stop people leaving rubbish lying around. The results make for interesting reading. Most residents in Mill and Cross Court believe that some people are simply too lazy to dispose of their rubbish correctly. Nearly 40% believed that the chutes were dirty and smelly and this was putting people off while a quarter of people felt that a penalty fine was the only way to deal with persistent offenders.

As a result of this survey, Gallions has put in place an 8-week project that will see the chutes deep cleaned and sanitised with new signs to demonstrate how to use the chutes correctly. And if this doesn't help curb the problem, discarded rubbish will be checked and those responsible will receive a warning letter regarding the issue of a £50 fixed penalty notice.

Reporting anti-social behaviour

Anti-social behaviour can come in all forms. However, whether it's noisy neighbours or young people causing trouble in the streets, it can make life very difficult for many people. Gallions treats all cases of anti-social behaviour seriously and has a process in place to help stamp out the problem wherever possible. Not everyone feels comfortable reporting anti-social behaviour but the association ensures that all complaints are confidential. If you are experiencing problems with anti-social behaviour please do contact Gallions and let them know about it. Gallions is determined to create a peaceful neighbourhood for all and will work with residents and agencies to find a solution. Sometimes, mediation is required and Gallions works closely with Thames Mediation – a service designed to help resolve conflicts.

You can report anti-social behaviour either on-line at Gallions website

- www.gallionsha.co.uk
- telephone freephone 0800 83 84 81
- speak to a neighbourhood warden

However you choose to report it, Gallions will do something about it.

HOW DOES YOUR GARDEN GROW?

The children and staff of Waterways Nursery were delighted to receive a visit from a group of community volunteers armed with garden spades and an array of plants including dwarf pinks, miniature conifers, strawberry plants and lavender, thyme and rosemary.

The volunteers were from the Tax department of Barclays Bank at Canary Wharf and were taking part in a community initiative that sees local businesses provide staff to undertake a range of tasks. In this case, the Barclays team was creating a really colourful garden for the children to enjoy.

Barclays paid for all the plants, herbs and tools and they also bought a sandpit for the nursery – a sure winner with all the children. All the materials and products used were supplied at a discount from the Belvedere branch of BBQ.

14 people from Barclays took part in the event including Simon Boon, Senior Tax Manager. Simon explained that Barclays is committed to community projects and allows staff to carry out up to 2 days voluntary work a year. He says: "Not only do these voluntary days give the staff a rewarding day out but they can help make a difference in the local community. It's an example of businesses working together for a good cause."

Waterways Nursery is looking for capable childcare volunteers to help out with the nursery's day to day activities. If you are interested in supporting one of Thamesmead's most established nurseries, please call for an application form on 0208 311 5491. You can find out more about Waterways at their Annual General Meeting which is being held on 11th July at 7pm.

Hip hopping to the top

Thamesmead's very own street dancing team, Myztikal continues to go from strength to strength. They have now been selected to represent Bexley at the opening ceremony of the London Youth Games at Crystal Palace in July. Their dynamic dancing has been capturing the imagination of many young people in and around Thamesmead and there are now some 70 people learning the latest moves. If you are interested in finding out more about Myztikal please call Norma Mthethwa on 07956 949249. The group is now open to people from 8 years old to 25.

Move over Jamie Oliver

Gallions neighbourhood warden Bruce Bishop is on a mission to teach Thamesmead's children about healthy eating and nutrition. And, having spent 27 years as a chef before becoming a warden he knows his subject inside out. Bruce says "I have always believed in healthy eating and working in schools has really shown me how we need to look after our children's health and eating habits."

Bruce has put together a presentation that is full of useful information but still packed with fun. He plans to take his nutrition project out to the local schools in September. It is sure to be a great success and Thamesview will be keeping you up to date with his progress.

Tennis POINTS

While to many football is the beautiful game, to many others tennis is the only game. More than 12 million people will settle down on 9th July to watch the world's top two tennis players slug it out on the world's most famous centre court. Here's a few Wimbledon facts for you to digest should rain stop play on the big day.

1. The game of tennis was invented in the late 19th century and was originally called sphairistike.

2. Wimbledon was the first organised tennis tournament in the world, and is the only Grand Slam that still uses grass.

3. The first Championship was held in 1877.

4. The first ladies matches were included in 1884.

5. In 1980 Bjorn Borg of Sweden became the first player to win the gentlemen's singles 5 times in a row since the 1880s.

6. Around 42,000 tennis balls are used in each Wimbledon Championship.

7. If all the cloth used to make the balls used during Wimbledon was laid out it would cover a pitch the size of the Millennium Stadium.

8. Yellow balls were used for the first time in 1986 to make the speeding balls more visible.

9. Slazenger has provided every tennis ball for the Wimbledon Championship since 1902.

10. 27,000kgs of strawberries are eaten at Wimbledon along with about 7,000 litres of cream.

11. Greg Rusedski has the world's fasest serve at 149 miles per hour.

12. This year Wimbledon will be played from 26th June to 9th July.

Axis - putting residents first

Eighteen months ago Maureen Henderson joined Axis Europe as their Senior Resident Liaison Officer and in that time she has made the job very much her own. Maureen is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the relationship between Axis and Gallions residents – a relationship which is set to get even stronger now that the two organisations have signed a 14-year partnering agreement. With a career spent entirely in customer services, Maureen has introduced a number of small but significant changes that have gone a long way in gaining residents' trust and confidence. She says: "I make sure that all the Axis staff on site remember that these are people's homes we are going into. It is never a question of just getting the job done."

Since the start Maureen has quickly become a firm favourite with the residents. She knows many of them by name and always has time to help them with any problems or concerns they may have. Should it be curtains or complaints, Maureen is on hand to find an answer whatever the question. "I make a point of getting round the flats as often as possible. Also, we try and deliver as many letters as possible by hand. That way we are always visible and accessible." Maureen has also introduced a 'rest room' where residents can drop in for a cup of tea and a chat. "Having work done in your home can be difficult at times. We want to make the process as easy as possible. The rest room is a chance to get away from it for a bit."

With Maureen on the front line of resident liaison, Axis, Gallions and the residents can all look forward to a successful long-term relationship!

Axis is carrying out refurbishment work to meet the government's Decent Homes Standards. Residents are offered a wide choice of colours, cupboards and workshops as their kitchens and bathrooms are refurbished. You can find examples of what is available at the Axis office beside Clydesdale House on Kale Road. Also, Axis have a supply of low energy light bulbs which are available for households who have had work carried out since April 2005 – just drop in a collect two per household. For more information about Axis and the Decent Homes Programme please call Maureen on 020 310 6187 or 07815 819447.

Tavy Bridge show flat open

The residents of Blewbury House and Tilehurst Point are looking forward to their properties being refurbished as part of the first phase of the Tavy Bridge regeneration programme. New windows, bathrooms and kitchens will be installed over the coming months. Gallions Tavy Bridge team have always made sure that residents are kept informed with all developments and the refurbishment project is no different.

A show flat is available for inspection at 11 Tilehurst Point and residents can make an appointment and come along and see for themselves how their refurbished homes will look. Viewings are available on Tuesday afternoons from 4pm to 5pm and Thursday mornings from 10am to 11am. So if you haven't yet had a look why not call Caroline Thackeray on 0208 320 3568 to make an appointment. It's worth a look.

Phase one is now well under way with the deckings demolished and the start of work on the multi-sports pitch. Residents will soon see hoarding going up as work starts on the new health centre. For more information about the regeneration programme and details of what is going on in and around Tavy Bridge simply drop into the Project Office or call 0208 310 8820.

There are some great acts in this year's Trust Thamesmead Festival and it is sure to be a day that all the family can enjoy. This month's competition is all about the Festival so why not give it a go and see if you could win £25 worth of WHSmith vouchers.

Gallions Golden Goal

Gallions finest footballers turned out in force to take on some of the biggest names in local business.

While the rest of the world was watching the German team open the World Cup, all eyes in Eltham were focussed on the Demelza House Children's Hospice Challenge.
