Thamesview Update

Gallions is undertaking a review of our communications and publications so that we ensure we're doing the very best we can to give you news and information at the right time and in the right way. In the short term, this means there'll be a change to publishing Thamesview quarterly instead of monthly for a while. Also, over the next few months our Customer Contact Team will be conducting a survey for our Marketing Department by calling a random sample of residents to find out what you think of Thamesview and the new Neighbourhood Bulletins. You'll find your first issue of the Bulletin inside this Thamesview, on Page 10. From now on each issue will be delivered to your door quarterly.

And we'd just like to say thank you in advance for taking part in the survey if you're asked to participate.

Complaints Contacts

Gallions aims to provide a first class service to all its residents. However, if you are unhappy with the service you have received there is a policy in place to help you make a complaint. A guide is available on the Gallions website under the 'quick links' section on the front page. You may also get in touch with the Complaints Management team who will advise you what action to take. Your feedback is important to Gallions.

Dear Residents

The Road To Excellence

Gallions Housing Association started its journey on the 'Road to Excellence' in 2004, which included achieving accreditation through Quality Housing Services, Investors in Excellence and Investors in People. In February 2007 we will embark on another milestone and undergo a formal inspection by the Audit Commission.

The Audit Commission is an independent public body responsible for ensuring that public money is spent efficiently and effectively in order to achieve high quality services for the public.

A team of inspectors will be appointed to inspect Gallions Housing Association and they will be with us for the whole week commencing 19th February 2007. They will review our services using published criteria for specific areas including Customer Care, Diversity, Value for Money and Prospects for Improvement.

The inspectors will make two judgements following their visit:

1. How good is the service on a scale of 1-4
2. What are our prospects for improvement

During their visit, the Inspection Team will meet representatives of the organisation, observe meetings and speak to groups of customers who have direct experience of our services.

Once the Inspection Team has completed their fieldwork they will produce a report, which will identify our strengths and weaknesses and include recommendations for improvements.

Gallions is committed to providing a range of high quality services to all our customers and our Business Plan reflects our desire to continuously improve these services for residents, communities and neighbourhoods.

I will be writing to you again in January with more details on the inspection process but in the meantime, if you have any questions about the Audit, please contact Tina Mercer, Audit Inspection Project Manager, by email tmercer@gallionsha.co.uk or in writing.

Yours truly

Tony Cotter

Chief Executive

QHS

We Win Again!

Your views have once again helped us to score top marks in the QHS criteria of excellence. QHS stands for Quality Housing Services, using mystery shoppers, telephone surveys, polls and on site inspections QHS are able to paint a very clear picture of how Gallions operates. We are now proud to announce that we have two awards to add to last years award for Accessibility. The Communication Award for performance against the QHS criteria for information and documentation and the Neighborhood Management Award for performance against the QHS criteria for Estate Management, which includes dealing with Anti Social Behavior.

So we take this opportunity to thank you once again, and please don't stop telling us how we are doing and what we could do better as although receiving these awards show that we are working hard to get our services right its your comments and suggestions that help us to keep moving forward.

THIS PILOT PROJECT'S BIN GREAT!

There have been huge changes just lately at Blewbury House and Tilehurst Point, Tavy Bridge.

Team Gallions has been running a pilot project through its trainee Neighbourhood Co-ordinator in conjunction with a resident and the Tavy Bridge team to clean up the blocks. Notices were displayed explaining to residents that dumping of household waste needed to stop and a Good Neighbourhood Agreement was then drawn up to highlight expectations of correct waste disposal.

Every resident was asked to sign the Agreement and evening visits by the Neighbourhood Wardens were made so that as many people as possible were personally contacted. In addition, leaflets raising awareness of the project explained that there would be a £50 fine for breaches of the Agreement.

Team Gallions recorded daily details of where rubbish was still being left and the relevant residents were approached.

The results have been amazing – the amount of rubbish left in and around the blocks has reduced significantly and there's now none at all on most days.

The good news is that no-one has been fined yet, but Gallions will charge £50 for removal of rubbish and take people to court for non-payment of fines if appropriate.

Residents and Tom Broad, the Team Gallions Manager, are very pleased that Blewbury House and Tilehurst Point are now much cleaner and tidier, and will be extending this approach to other blocks. Tom Broad said "Our aim is to use our Neighbourhood Warden service so that we can apply this clean-up process in every block of flats in Thamesmead in the very near future."

YOUR CALL CENTRE SHORTLISTED FOR EUROPEAN AWARD

Isn't it good to know that your problems and queries are being dealt with by local people locally? Your Customer Contact Team was shortlisted in the 'Best Call Centre Under 50 Seats' category in the European Call Centre Awards on 3 October.

Up against some very stiff competition from companies such as 'Toyota financial services' Vicky Holland, Customer Contact Team Leader, said she was delighted that the team's hard work had been recognised: "The call centre takes over 1750 calls each week ranging from queries on rent, repairs and all sorts of other topics.

NEW CALL CENTRE TIMES

Why not make use of Gallions new 24/7 service?

Telephone lines are fully manned day and night and the team is available to answer rent queries, report repairs and offer a full customer contact service. So if you need to get in touch with the team, remember that you can now call them at a time that suits you.

NEIGHBOURHOOD NEWS

As many of you will already know from contact with us or from earlier Thamesview editions, we have made some big changes in housing management in the last few months.

After some feedback on the way we dealt with anti-social behaviour and other local issues in our last tenants' survey, we set about changing the way we organise our resources in the office. Our aims were to:

- make our services more locally focused
- give more responsibility to officers for the local area they manage
- set up "patch teams" to meet regularly to look at ways the area can be improved - these meetings to involve staff and residents
- inform residents of what we are doing locally and how you can help us
- get officers out on the estate meeting residents

We created new posts called Neighbourhood Co-ordinators who will take full responsibility for all activity (apart from rent and repairs) that happen in their local neighbourhood. They'll be expected to be out and about on the estate much more and be in touch with what's going on. They'll work very closely with Neighbourhood Wardens and others to monitor and resolve anti-social behaviour, and will have the tools to deal swiftly with rubbish dumping and graffiti.

We have evolved the patch teams into NVA's, which stands for NEIGHBOURHOOD VISUAL AUDITS. This will involve a focused walkabout in the neighbourhood, identifying problems and concerns, followed by a meeting to look at solutions and ways to improve the environment.

We also brought the Neighbourhood Wardens into the same team as the Neighbourhood Co-ordinators. This has helped with communication, resources and workloads. All are aiming towards a common goal now and both teams are heavily involved in the NVA's.

Four new officers are to be recruited to carry out these important roles and three will be joining us by the end of October. See future issues of Thamesview for more details.

If you would like to join the NVA for your neighbourhood, please contact either Zena Skinner (Bexley) or Bev Oxlade (Greenwich).

We also felt that although Thamesview was good at getting Thamesmead-wide messages out to residents, we needed something that tells you what is happening in your local neighbourhood. Therefore we are launching NEIGHBOURHOOD BULLETINS to keep you updated on progress. The first issue of the Bulletin is on page 10.

Bulletins will be delivered four times a year in your local neighbourhood and will tell you what the NVA and Neighbourhood Forum (chaired by the GRB) have been working on and about local schemes happening on your doorstep.

Lastly, we changed all the names! By referring to patches and areas as NEIGHBOURHOODS we felt we were underlining how important what is happening on a local level, in your immediate area, is to us.

BLOOMING MARVELLOUS FREE FLOWERS FOR ALL!

Team Gallions would like to offer a selection of free bulbs to every resident this autumn. To receive your free bulbs, which will include popular spring time flowers such as the daffodil and crocus all you have to do is simply complete this coupon, return it to us and we will deliver the bulbs direct to your door Alternatively you can take the slip into the Gallions Reception and collect your bulbs from there.

Making a Cl

For sixty children from Windrush Primary School, Friday 15th September was a day when everything they did was "rubbish". The children were taking part in a clean up project organised by Team Gallions and environmental agency Thames 21. Painting out grafitti, picking up litter and hauling rubbish from the canal the youngsters were amazed at just how much rubbish had been dumped around their school. However, when they pulled a motorbike from the water many of the children simply couldn't believe their eyes. Deputy Head Joanne Marchant was delighted at the children's enthusiasm:

"This term we are looking at the impact of our actions on the environment, and in particular water. It's great for the children to see for themselves the devastating effect of rubbish and fly tipping."

The day was the start of a long-term campaign that will see Team Gallions working with Thamesmead's schools to teach children about the importance of taking care of their environment.

Counsellor Harpinder Singh, Mayor of Greenwich, was on hand to encourage the children and to show his support for environmental issues: "The whole community must work together to tackle the problem of litter left lying around. The children have done a fantastic job and it has given them a real sense of ownership." One little boy was so pleased with how clean the area looked that he asked a Neighbourhood Warden to sleep outside to stop anyone dropping rubbish.

Team Gallions has entered into a two-year partnership agreement with Thames 21 aiming to raise standards on the canal system in Thamesmead and this will include the recruitment of a dedicated officer by Thames 21 to manage and take forward the project.

For details of how you can get involved call Joanne Scott on 020 8320 3409 or email jscott@gallionsha.co.uk

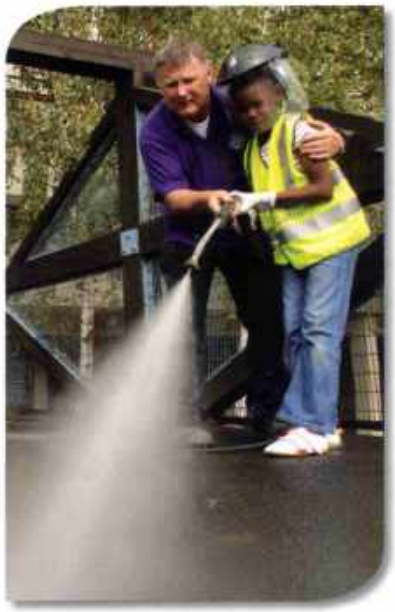

Clean Sweep

Interested in buying your home?

Social HomeBuy, is a government funded initiative which gives housing association tenants discounts of between £4,000 and £16,000 towards buying their home. This means that those tenants who don't have the Right to Buy could now be eligible to buy all or part of their home.

To qualify for the scheme you need to be:

- A secure or assured tenant (excluding shorthold assured tenants and long leaseholders) of Gallions occupy self contained accommodation
- have been a public sector tenant for a minimum of two years (five years for tenancies granted after 18 January 2005.)
- occupy an eligible property.
- you will need a household income (single or joint) of more than £18,000 per annum;
- you will need to have had a clear rent account for at least six months before applying;
- you must not be in breach of your tenancy agreement or be the subject of a suspension order for anti-social behaviour.

If you are interested in buying your home and think you meet the criteria please register your interest with the Customer Contact Team on 0800 83 84 81 and we will then contact you with more details about the scheme.

WHAT HAPPENS IF I DON'T PAY MY RENT? £££££££££££££

During the first quarter of this years financial year (April to June) Gallions saw 8 residents evicted and 40 taken to court. The Credit Control Team monitors all rent accounts that are in arrears on a weekly basis. Their job is to help you make arrangements to clear arrears, and save you from eviction.

The following guidelines explain what happens if your rent account goes into arrears.

- A Credit Control Officer will either telephone, visit or write to you to advise you of the existing arrears and will discuss your circumstances with you.
- They will aim to make a mutually acceptable arrangement so that the debt is repaid and depending on your circumstances may refer you to Gallions Welfare Benefits Officer who could help you to claim various forms of income or housing benefit.
- Gallions will not take legal action while there are outstanding benefit issues, which could be resolved.

If we are not able to make contact and the debt does not reduce the rent account will be passed on to the Court Enforcement Officer, who will start legal action if an agreement cannot be made or if agreed payments are not received.

There are various possible outcomes at a court hearing, one of them being that you could be given a date to give up possession of your home. This date may be suspended or postponed if regular payments to repay the debt are maintained. If the debt has been fully repaid before the date for the court hearing then the hearing will be adjourned to a later date or even withdrawn, however we will still levy our costs for issuing the proceedings, which are currently £150.00.

So please never ignore any contact made by the Credit Control Team, if you have rent arrears and have not entered into an agreement to repay them please contact us without further delay on 0800 83 84 81. We are here to help!

ONE2ONE

Zena Skinner

In June 2006 Gallions took steps towards its new Neighbourhood approach by appointing its two new Neighbourhood Team Managers.

They have taken the lead in shaping the new team and integrating both the Allocations and Neighbourhood Warden services, both of which work in our Neighbourhood Management section.

This issue, Zena Skinner tells Thamesview of her belief in the new approach and how she feels it benefits residents.

Zena has worked for Gallions for 12 years and has a wealth of experience, including housing management, community safety and dealing with anti-social behaviour. Until recently, Zena was a long-term resident of Thamesmead, having lived here for 20 years. Her passion for her job comes across strongly in her feelings about our work in Neighbourhoods:

"It's important for us to recognise issues affecting our residents in local neighborhoods so we can respond quickly and effectively in whatever ways are appropriate or available. We work with a range of partners to help us solve problems."

Zena explains that our Neighbourhood Wardens are the eyes and ears in local neighbourhoods and are often the first to hear of important issues for the local community. They use their vast range of skills to provide support to young and old. This can include befriending our older residents with visits or running projects for local youths.

The aims of our Neighbourhood approach are to:

- provide swift and effective responses to local issues
- work with local residents
- address long-term issues, such as dumping household waste that has an impact on everyone's lives.

" We recognise that it is sometimes the smaller things that have a negative impact on the way people feel about their neighbourhoods" said Zena. "It is our aim through working with residents, informally and formally, to understand what these issues are and to put together solutions to deal with them using all our available resources."

You can contact Zena on 020 8320 3403 about any of the issues raised here.

Stay safe on Bonfire Night

The Neighbourhood Wardens will be visiting schools this week to talk to the pupils about staying safe on firework night. Working with the London Fire Brigade they will remind children about the firework code and give tips on how to stay safe and enjoy the fireworks.

Want to celebrate 401 years of gun powder, treason and plot? You're local displays are being held at:

Danson Park. Ticket Prices: Kids £3.00 Adults £5.00
Gates Open 6pm, Fireworks due to begin at 8pm

Neighbourhood Bulletins

Forums: How it all fits together and dates for your diary.

Chairs of the forums and Gallions have worked on some changes to the Neighbourhood Forum format that will help the meetings run more smoothly and give you all a chance to discuss your individual concerns.

Surgeries

Before each meeting, a 'Surgery' will be held where there will be a number of officers present to discuss individual problems you may be experiencing and do not wish to raise in the main forum. Those present will include your Neighbourhood Co-ordinator, a representative from Axis (Gallions' partnering contractor) and the Police.

The main meeting will then be free to discuss bigger issues that affect all of you and will include guest speakers.

Feedback

Feedback from the walkabouts and meetings in your neighbourhood will be available, in future bulletins, via guest speakers and on the website. For example as a result of feedback received at the Moorings Neighbourhood Meeting, it has been agreed that shopkeepers be invited to future meetings. They can have a useful contribution to make and other neighbourhoods may wish to consider this idea.

Guest speakers

Lots of people would like to come and talk to you in your neighbourhood. This may be about something that affects everyone or a subject you particularly want feedback on, for instance the work Axis is doing on your property and more generally, in the wider community.

You can choose a guest speaker by suggesting someone to your Chair who can arrange this when he or she meets your Neighbourhood Co-ordinator.

Rubbish!!

Gallions are currently running a rubbish awareness policy in Tilehurst Point and Blewbury House. The aim is to reduce the amount of rubbish left in the block and improve the local environment by letting residents know where and when rubbish should be disposed.

It does mean that there is a nasty job for Team Gallions in going through the rubbish bags, but if it means Gallions can identify the culprits and fine them, it will be worth it!

Jargon Buster:

Ever been confused by those abbreviated words and acronyms people say at meetings, but afraid to ask what they mean? Well here are a few explained!

If you have some examples that you would like the next Bulletin to explain then call our freephone number and let us know on 0800 83 84 81

ASBO: Anti Social Behaviour Order (An order made by the court to prevent Anti social behaviour)

LCHO: Low Cost Home ownership (Schemes to help people get on the property ladder for the first time, like part rent, part buy schemes)

HCA: Housing Corporation Assessment (The Housing Corporation does a yearly report on all housing associations including whether we are financially ok, whether we manage things properly, whether we develop new properties well and whether our Board functions well)

FTA's : Former tenants arrears (sometimes people leave our properties with debts still on their accounts, and we continue to chase them for the money, even after they are no longer our tenants)
