RAFFLE No. № 01928

London's ethnic diversity is an asset. Yet, held back by racism, discrimination, racial disadvantage and deprivation, the black and other ethnic minority communities are prevented from realising their full potential in society. This is currently a fact of life – but one which the Greater London Council is helping to eradicate.

In 1981 the Council established the Ethnic Minorities Committee as a major committee of the Council supported by an Ethnic Minorities Unit. Since then the Committee has initiated a wide range of activities designed to meet their overall objectives of combatting racism, avoiding race discrimination and ensuring that the Council takes direct action at all times to secure race equality in London.

In line with their objectives, a number of publications have been produced:

1. The GLC's work to assist Ethnic Minorities
2. Race Equality and Ethnic Minorities in London – Future Strategy Report 1983–85
3. Ethnic Minorities and the abolition of the GLC
4. Section 11 of the Local Government Act 1966:
   Take-up by London Local Authorites for Non-Educational Uses
5. The Role of Section 11 workers:
   Report of the Conference 27 January 1984
6. Challenging Racism in London
   Report of the Conference 12 March 1983
7. Anti-Apartheid Declaration Launch –
   Ceremonial Booklet
8. Conference on Aid to Black Businesses and Community Enterprises 19 March 1983
9. Anti-Racist Work in the Independent Voluntary Sector
10. Rastafarianism in Greater London
11. What can I do to Challenge Racism?

As part of this intensive programme the Council has also designated 1984 as Anti-Racist Year in order to raise public awareness about the divisive nature of racism and to encourage positive action to achieve racial equality. Thus the fight to dismantle all forms of racism in London has been accorded a high priority.

If you want to know more about Anti-Racist Year or obtain copies of the above publications, please write to:

Chairman's Message

First of all I must begin by welcoming all the people at Thamesmead and neighbouring communities to the 1985 Thamesmead Carnival and Townshow.

Thamesmead Multi-cultural Funfield Association was formed in 1983 by a group of local residents in Thamesmead. Its aims are to campaign for better facilities for cultural and sports activities for the Town, and to that end to bring those of varied ethnic backgrounds together to work in harmony and with enthusiasm. Membership of Funfield is growing daily, and is open to any person who shares the objectives, and especially to residents.

The T.M.C.F.A. are this year's organisers and we hope to bring new and lasting life to Thamesmead on Bank Holiday Monday, in this the grandest spectacular ever to be staged in our community.

We have devoted many long hours to bring this show to you and we hope our ambitions would come true with your support.

I would also like to say "thank you" to the musicians and entertainers. For the first time we are seeing a truly multi-ethnic gathering of high class entertainment. This can only contribute to a better understanding of national diversities.

I would also like to take this opportunity in saying a big thank you to the Greater London Council for their financial and other invaluable support — again, thank you GLC.

You know the Trinidadians say "All day, all night we are playing Mas" — I hope one day we shall all be playing mas as carnival is our national festival.

Again, I welcome you all and sincerely hope that you have a most memorable and enjoyable day.

Make your day, come to the Thamesmead Carnival and Townshow.

Yours,

Claude D. Ramsey

Claude D. Ramsey
Chair of Carnival & Townshow Committee

Best Wishes from . . .

This is the 14th year of the Thamesmead Carnival and Town Show and I regard it as an honour to be asked to open this event, as have my predecessors.

The Show is a major event for the community and it provides an opportunity to raise funds to help voluntary groups maintain their work throughout the year. Please support this event with generosity and enthusiasm.

I wish you all good luck, good health and good weather!

R.J. Passey
Mayor of Bexley

I welcome this opportunity to offer the Thamesmead Multi-cultural Carnival and Townshow my best wishes for success and hope it will lead to the further harmonisation of the people of Thamesmead. Such events as this with all groups working together will enhance the life of the people of the London Borough of Greenwich.

J. Gillman
Mayor of Greenwich

Meet The Team!

CLAUDE RAMSEY

Claude Ramsey, Chair of the Carnival and Townshow Committee, is also the chair of Funfield, the body which has organised the combined event this year. Claude has lived in Thamesmead for 5 years and was instrumental in pioneering the first Carnival ever staged in the U.K. back in the 1950's. Besides chairing the committee, Claude has been responsible for publicity aspects of the event.

JAMES GORDON

James Gordon is treasurer of the committee and has also been responsible for some of the liaison with advertisers. A former resident of Thamesmead, he is still an active member of Funfield's Committee. He has seven years experience of working in the field of Community Relations.

FRANK ROBERTSON

Frank Robertson is secretary of the committee. He is also the Outreach Development Officer for Funfield. Frank is alone responsible for providing the great variety of entertainers for the event, as well as having devoted much of his energy and time to the complex preparations for the Carnival. Frank will be Compere and Stage Manager on the day. He is a Thamesmead resident of long standing, and has been actively involved in community affairs affecting the people of Thamesmead for some twelve years now.

SONIA MARS

Sonia Mars has tackled the administration with great zest and enthusiasm, and has made an indispensable contribution.

PETER DYAL

Peter Dyal is Vice-Chair of the Committee, and Co-ordinator of Funfield. He has been responsible for the overall organisation of the event, especially fund-raising and liaison with the sponsors. He has also acted as press officer for the event. He has been involved in community relations over the last five years and is at the forefront of the activities of Funfield.

BRIAN GILLARD

Brian Gillard is the Community Involvement Officer for the Metropolitan Police, and is directly responsible for activities such as those on Thamesmead. P.C. Gillard is responsible for all police involvement in organising the activities, and especially for mapping out the routes (see page 10). He has been an active member of the Committee itself.

PATRICIA MOORE

As well as giving administrative support, Patsy has generated much of the enthusiasm that has formed into the making of the costumes.

We would like to express our thanks to all those who helped in so many ways towards making this event possible. Our special thanks to:

JOHN BIRD — GLC Parks Manager for Thamesmead and his team. They have been most generous in providing the park facilities and full security for the event.

IRVIN GARDNER — For his great contribution in preparing banners and sign-boards, as well as helping with other aspects of the publicity.

BEGONIA SEALE — As well as an active member of the committee, she has contributed tremendously in costume making as well as to the general conception of the event.

PETER SUCKLING — As the GLC's Community Officer for Thamesmead, he has been especially helpful to the committee in drawing from his experience of organising previous Town Shows. He has also helped to provide much of the equipment needed to stage the event.

A place in London's future

When it comes to Equal Opportunities are you less equal than the rest?

Experience and hearsay probably tell you that jobs open to disabled people are few and far between. But things can change — and are changing at the London Borough of Greenwich.

We believe that the vast majority of jobs can be done by people with disabilities, and we are fully committed to developing a barrier-free environment for work. We are determined to provide the special aids, training and incentives which are needed, and to encourage employers and employees in both public and private sectors to examine their attitudes to disabilities.

We advertise posts widely — in Local and National Press, in Job Centres and with specialist organisations such as Greenwich Association for the Disabled and the Royal National Institute for the Blind. All our jobs carry an 'Equal Opportunities' statement, and we mean what we say. If you see a job you are interested in, or would like to discuss a career with the Council, then write to Tony Davies, The Employment Officer for Disabled People, London Borough of Greenwich, Peggy Middleton House, 50 Woolwich New Road, London SE18.

The Council positively welcomes applications from women, ethnic minorities and disabled people.
